

Consultations Provides Answers

Consultations Provides Answers

Individuals looking to get their weight under control will begin the process with a complete consultation with a lap band specialist. The prospective Lap Band patient should come to the meeting prepared with questions for the doctor.

To start the process, the individual must be at least 18 years old and not older than 65.